She was well beyond coherent words now, reduced to beast-like howling. A part of Issei that recalled his mother was still downstairs shoved the nearest thing he found—a piece of her maid clothing—into her mouth and silenced her cries. The action seemed to turn her on even more, as saliva quickly soaked the fabric, and her cunt tightened ...

Her ears twitched atop of her head as she heard other voices, much like the mans from earlier, however, she could tell from the pitch and tone that one was definitely not a male, but rather a female of the same species. She stayed still for a few moments, feeling her new 'pup' cling onto her fur and snuggled further into her back.

The Criterion Collection’s Blu-ray of Merrily We Go to Hell is a new and restored 4K digital scan. The label’s clean-up work retains the 1932 patina, not removing the grain structure of the images. Cameraman David Abel (Top Hat, History is Made at Night) does wonders with mood lighting, whether on a penthouse balcony or in a dark corner of a lonely room.

Vernon Dent, Actor: The Shadow. Familiar to many as the frustrated cop, businessman or landlord in countless two-reel comedies by The Three Stooges, Vernon Dent got his start in show business as a member of a singing troupe traveling in Southern California in the early 1920s. He was befriended by comedian Hank Mann, a member of the famed Keystone Kops.

"Shurima was once the glory of Runeterra. I will make it so again." - Azir Azir was a mortal emperor of Shurima in a far distant age, a proud man who stood at the cusp of immortality. His hubris saw him betrayed and murdered at the moment of his greatest triumph, but now, millennia later, he has been reborn as an Ascended being of immense power. With his buried city risen from the sand, Azir ...
