I've seen lots of good comments about Ed Bolduc's Mass of St Ann, ... The real music has a fair bit of contrast, excitement and nuance that I don't quite capture with BIAB and I've kept the Lamb of God somewhat rougher than the official version, but feel free to sing along.

Assembly singing is the primary goal, which determines virtually all song selections as well as the key in which they are sung/played. Overall, the music at St. Ann's leans to the more contemporary side, but traditional hymns and texts are treasured as well. Ensembles range from a full band to a single piano and vocalist.
