A true Christian, one saved by love and filled with God's love, must live in love toward God and others. In this section of Scripture, we learn that brotherly love is our response to God's love. The Lord teaches believers how to show his love to others, to our friends, family, and even our enemies.

I liked everything about this study. It was very down-to-earth, and easy to understand. It makes you realize that we're not so different from women back in Biblical times, and have the same issues still today. Excellent teachings to learn how God's love can change women. It spawns some great self-evaluation too. Highly recommend.
