Genuine Agrarian Reform Since then, the fight for land reform has moved slowly. The Department of Agrarian Reform still does its best to mandate the distribution of land to farmers, but landlords and companies still fight DAR every step of the way. Farmers, meanwhile, continue to suffer under the yoke of feudalism.

Understanding Land Reform in the Philippines

Land reform in Zimbabwe officially began in 1980 with the signing of the Lancaster House Agreement, as an Anti-racist effort to more equitably distribute land between black subsistence farmers and white Zimbabweans of European ancestry, who had traditionally enjoyed superior political and economic status. The programme's stated targets were intended to alter the ethnic balance of land ownership. The government's land distribution is perhaps the most crucial and most bitterly ...
